

Georgia Chinese Language Educators (GCLE) Online Workshop

Task Based Language Teaching (TBLT) and Teach Proficiency by Reading and Storytelling (TPRS)

Description

These are very popular ways currently on language classroom teaching. This online workshop will discuss how to use video clips to increase class engagement, to teach and push students to develop skills in Chinese language speaking and writing. Additionally, they can make their own Chinese videos to facilitate students' language tasks and stories.

Speaker: Dr. Zhaohui Cheng

Dr. Zhaohui Cheng graduated from the "Chinese Language and Literature Department" of Nanjing University, received both the Bachelor and Master Degrees. She studied and taught Chinese in the Linguistic Program at the University of Florida from 1994 – 2000 and received the Ph.D degree. Dr. Cheng has taught Chinese as a foreign language for more than 20 years. She taught in Nanjing University, Nanjing Normal University, University of Florida, Georgia Perimeter College, and Kennesaw University of Georgia. At present, she teaches in the Woodward Academy. She is one of the two main editors and writers of the Chinese textbook "Speak in Chinese, Talk about the Culture" and was the main instructor of the StarTalk Chinese Teachers Training Program at Kennesaw University from 2011-2013.

Date: December 12, 2018 at 8:30, 40 minutes

Workshop Website: <https://zoom.us/j/604853073>